

Health Department Services: What Will I Have to Pay?

Many services such as required childhood immunizations, WIC and testing for sexually transmitted diseases are provided at no charge. Fees for clinic services such as family planning, maternity, and emergency dental care are based on your ability to pay, and have an upper income limit.

Use this income chart to see if you qualify for reduced fees for chargeable services.

To qualify for reduced fees, bring proof of income to the health department. Proof of income means one of these: paycheck stubs; income tax return; statement of benefits from retirement, Social Security, Workers' Compensation, Veterans, etc. Proof of no income includes an unemployment or layoff notice, a letter from the person who provides food and shelter or a letter from a Church or other agency providing support.

We charge a fixed fee for some services such as adult immunizations. If you can't afford a fixed fee service and it is essential to your health, such as a rabies vaccination, we can adjust the fee based on your ability to pay. If you need services and are worried about your ability to pay, please call us for more information.
